AAI Courses in Immunology

The American Association of Immunologists

2007 Introductory Course in Immunology

June 22 - 28, 2007
The University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA

Course Director: Terri M. Laufer, M.D., University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine

This two-part course will give students the tools necessary to understand and discuss current topics and methods in the field of immunology. Part I is a comprehensive introduction to the basic principles of immunology and is suitable for students with a general biology background. Part II is a lecture course covering major areas of immunology and requires an understanding of basic immunology. Parts I and II may be taken independently at the discretion of the student. 38 Continuing Medical Education (CME) Category I credits are offered.* Minority Access to Research Careers (MARC) travel awards are available to US citizens and permanent residents.

Attendance is limited to 200 registrants.

The American Association of Immunologists

2007 Advanced Course in Immunology

August 4 - 10, 2007
The University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN

Course Director: Marc K. Jenkins, Ph.D., University of Minnesota

This intensive course is designed for serious students of immunology. Leading experts will present recent advances in understanding the biology of the immune system and its role in health and disease. This course is directed toward advanced trainees and scientists who wish to expand or update their understanding of the field. This is not a survey course and requires that attendees have a firm understanding of the principles of immunology. 43 Continuing Medical Education (CME) Category I credits are offered.* Minority Access to Research Careers (MARC) travel awards are available to US citizens and permanent residents.

Attendance is limited to 220 registrants.

Overseas applicants are advised to apply early for visas.

* This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint sponsorship of the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology (FASEB) and the AAI. FASEB is accredited by the ACCME to provide CME for physicians. FASEB designates this educational activity for the designated number of credit hours in category 1 credit towards the AMA Physician’s Recognition Award. Number of hours is subject to change.

If you don’t know what’s in The JI, then you don’t know what’s going on in immunology.

The JI is the 15th most cited journal of all 6,088 scientific journals.

- ISI Science Citation Index, 2005 (Journal Citation Reports)

The JI is the definitive record for research progress in immunology. Original peer-reviewed articles reporting studies in basic and clinical immunology include:

- Cutting Edge (Rapid Communication)
- Cellular Immunology and Immune Regulation
- Molecular and Structural Immunology
- Immunogenetics
- Host Defense
- Inflammation
- Clinical Immunology
