Don’t miss the AAI Advanced Course in Immunology!
Register Now! Limited Space Available!

This popular course is designed for serious students of immunology. Leading experts will present recent advances in the biology of the immune system and its role in health and disease.

The course is directed toward advanced trainees and scientists who wish to expand or update their understanding of the field. This is not an introductory course and attendees will need to have a firm understanding of the principles of immunology. Category I CME credits are offered for attendance*.

Course Director: Marc K. Jenkins, Ph.D., Professor and Associate Director, Center for Immunology, University of Minnesota

*This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint sponsorship of the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology (FASEB) and the AAI. FASEB is accredited by the ACCME to provide CME for physicians. FASEB designates this educational activity for up to 34 credit hours in category 1 credit towards the AMA Physician’s Recognition Award.
Need to Recruit?

Recruiting through The Journal of Immunology is the most economical way to reach the immunology community without wasting money. Why pay more to reach geologists and physicists when you are seeking immunologists?

A quarter-page advertisement costs $815.
