Call for 2007 Award Nominations

Nomination Deadline: Wednesday, November 1, 2006

AAI-Dana Foundation Award in Human Immunology Research

Established in 2004 in partnership with the Dana Foundation, this award is intended to recognize individuals who discover immune processes pertinent to human disease pathogenesis, prevention, and therapy. The recipient will receive a $5,000 cash award and travel support to attend the AAI Annual Meeting for presentation of his or her work in an award lecture. In addition, the award provides support to one member of the awardee's laboratory to attend the AAI Annual Meeting.

AAI Excellence in Mentoring Award

Established by AAI in 1997, this award recognizes the importance of the mentor-trainee relationship. A dedicated mentor can significantly influence a trainee's successful development and career. Every year at the Annual Meeting, AAI honors a member's contributions to the profession through outstanding mentoring.

AAI-Huang Foundation Meritorious Career Award

This award, established by the AAI in 1999 in partnership with the Huang Foundation, is intended to recognize an established scientist for outstanding research contributions to the field of immunology. The awardee receives a $10,000 cash prize and travel to the AAI Annual Meeting for presentation of his or her work in an award lecture.

AAI-BD Biosciences Investigator Award

Since 1993, the AAI has recognized an early-career investigator who has made outstanding contributions to the field of immunology. This award has been co-sponsored by BD Biosciences since 1998. The award recipient receives a $3,000 cash prize and travel support to the Annual Meeting for presentation of his or her work in an award lecture.

Call for 2007 Travel & Related Award Applications

Application Deadline: Monday, January 15, 2007

AAI-Huang Foundation Trainee Achievement Award -- Established in 1997 through an endowment from the Huang Foundation, this award offers promising trainees* in the field of immunology a $1,000 cash prize and support for travel to the AAI Annual Meeting. Selection is based on career promise and presentation of an outstanding first-author abstract at the meeting.

AAI Junior Faculty Travel Award -- Supported in part through an unrestricted educational grant from Bender MedSystems, this award offers a $500 cash prize to young investigators based on career promise and submission of a first-author abstract to the AAI Annual Meeting. AAI members and nonmembers are eligible.

AAI Minority Scientist Travel Award -- The 2006 AAI Minority Scientist Travel Awards are funded by a grant from the National Institute of General Medical Sciences, National Institutes of Health [FASEB MARC Program: T36-GM08059-23]. This award provides eligible mentors, trainees,* and/or junior faculty members complimentary advance registration and travel support in connection with the AAI Annual Meeting. Two types of awards -- Faculty Mentor/Minority Trainee Award and Minority Trainee-to-Junior-Faculty Travel Award -- are available, with separate eligibility requirements for each. Awardees must attend the meeting and award ceremony.

Cynthia Chambers Memorial-eBioscience Junior Faculty Award -- To honor the memory of Dr. Cynthia Chambers, the AAI, in partnership with eBioscience, Inc., established this award in 2005 to advance the careers of junior scientists who attend the AAI Annual Meeting to present immunology research, specifically in the area of cancer biology. The recipient will receive a $1,000 cash award. Selection is based on the submission of an original first-author abstract for presentation (oral or poster) at the forthcoming AAI Annual Meeting. The awardee will be recognized and presented with a certificate during an awards ceremony at the Annual Meeting, and must attend the awards ceremony to receive the award.

Pfizer-Showell Travel Award -- Established in 1999 through an endowment from Henry J. Showell and Pfizer, Inc., this award recognizes the professional promise of an early career investigator (assistant professor or equivalent) by assisting the awardee with travel to the Annual Meeting to present immunology research. Selection is based on career progress and submission of an outstanding abstract selected for oral presentation at the meeting.
