AAI Career Advisory Board

Starting your first lab? Facing new and puzzling issues? If so, you probably wish to turn to a more senior scientist for guidance—but perhaps not one at your own institution. The AAI Career Advisory Board (CAB) is tailored specifically for you.

The CAB is a referral service to match early faculty who submit requests for guidance on specific career issues with more senior PIs having experience and insight in those areas, excluding members of your own faculty. You may also specify individuals not to be contacted on your behalf.

Eligibility: Although the CAB is sponsored by the Committee on the Status of Women, it is open to all early-faculty AAI members, both men and women.

Advisors: A pool of senior scientists—men and women—are volunteering to be “on call.” Topics include recruiting, handling personnel issues, timing for first grant submissions, building networks, teaching, balancing family and work, serving on NIH study sections, and more.

Visit www.aai.org/About/Leadership/Committees/CSOW/Career-Advisory-Board.html to submit a request.
You have the power.

Your membership in the American Association of Immunologists helps advance the field—and your career.

Being a part of AAI enables you to take an active role in helping to shape the future of immunology and attain your professional goals. You’ll stand with members representing immunological research concerns on Capitol Hill. Plus, you gain access to:

• The best and brightest minds today.
• The world’s largest annual all-immunology meeting.
• The Journal of Immunology, the pre-eminent peer-reviewed journal in the field.
• Many occasions and opportunities to present your research.
• Awards/fellowships/grants to support talented scientists in every career stage.

To learn more about how your professional life is enriched by membership in AAI, call 301.634.7195 or visit www.aai.org today.
Chronicling the AAI Legacy. AAI staff historians and scientists are rigorously researching, archiving, and publishing materials to preserve the proud heritage of the association. Articles posted in the history section of the AAI website, www.aai.org/about/history, include:

AAI Website

The history section of the AAI website continues to evolve as a living archive. Current and future resources include:

- AAI history articles published in the AAI Newsletter
- Oral History Project—exclusive interviews offering a rare glimpse into the lives and times of influential immunologists
- Digital Immunology Timeline, including all the images from the physical Centennial Timeline as well as citations for the scientific events
- Profiles of notable AAI members, including AAI Nobel and Lasker recipients, and past presidents and officers
- An eBook of commentaries on “Pillars” articles from The Journal of Immunology
- AAI Story Booth—attendees’ stories of events that shaped their careers in immunology, recorded at the past three annual meetings
